WHAT PLACE IS THIS?

What place is this, this Winter night? So dimly lit, so little light?

This is the place of incarnation. A Saviour born, hope of all nations

What babe is this upon the hay? A new- born King, that's what they say.

Born to be King and God's own Son born of a Virgin, the Chosen One.

What gifts are these, presented here, these offerings that have appeared?

Wise men have brought them from afar following here a bright lit star.

What is meant by this strange event? A Saviour from Heaven sent.

God's only Son, His gift for all Jesus, who lies in a manger stall.

And what is our response to be? To view this coming thankfully

And give Him our devotion true and dedicate our lives anew.

David Clark
