So the fine weather seems to have finally arrived and it has been wonderful to enjoy the sunshine. Enjoy this poem about the month of June and God's hand at work in our ever changing seasons during the year.

The Lovely Month of June

Summer came to visit me
 In the merry month of June;
 She brought her warm and winsome days
 And at night she lit up the moon.
 Summer came to visit me,
 Adorned in her Sunday best;
 She wore a hat of sapphire blue
 And her gown was daisy-dressed.
 Summer came to visit me
 And spread sunshine everywhere.
 Emerald shoes were on her feet,
 Spun-gold was in her hair.
 Summer came to visit me,
 Sweet songbirds trilled a tune;
 And it's all because God fashioned this –
 The lovely month of June.
